

Copyright

The material submitted for presentation at an IFAC meeting (congress, symposium, conference, workshop) must be original, not published or being considered elsewhere. All papers for presentation will appear in the Preprints of the meeting and will be distributed to the participants. Papers duly presented will be archived and offered for sale, in the form of Proceedings, by Elsevier Science Ltd, Oxford, UK. The papers which have been presented will be further screened for possible publication in the IFAC Journals: Automatica and Control Engineering Practice, or in IFAC affiliated journals. All papers presented will be recorded in Control Engineering Practice.

Copyright of material presented at an IFAC meeting is held by IFAC. Authors will be sent a copyright transfer form. Automatica, Control Engineering Practice, and these IFAC affiliated journals have priority access to all contributions presented. However, if the author is not contacted by an editor of these journals within three months after the meeting, the author is free to re-submit the material for publication elsewhere. In this case, the paper must carry a reference to the IFAC meeting where it was originally presented.

Publications After Conferences

All the papers which have been presented will be screened for possible publication in the IFAC Journals.

Journal of Process Control and Control Engineering Practice have agreed each to publish a special issue for the conference.

Elsevier will also publish the Proceeding of the conference and arrange to index the presented papers in a range of abstracting and indexing services.
